About

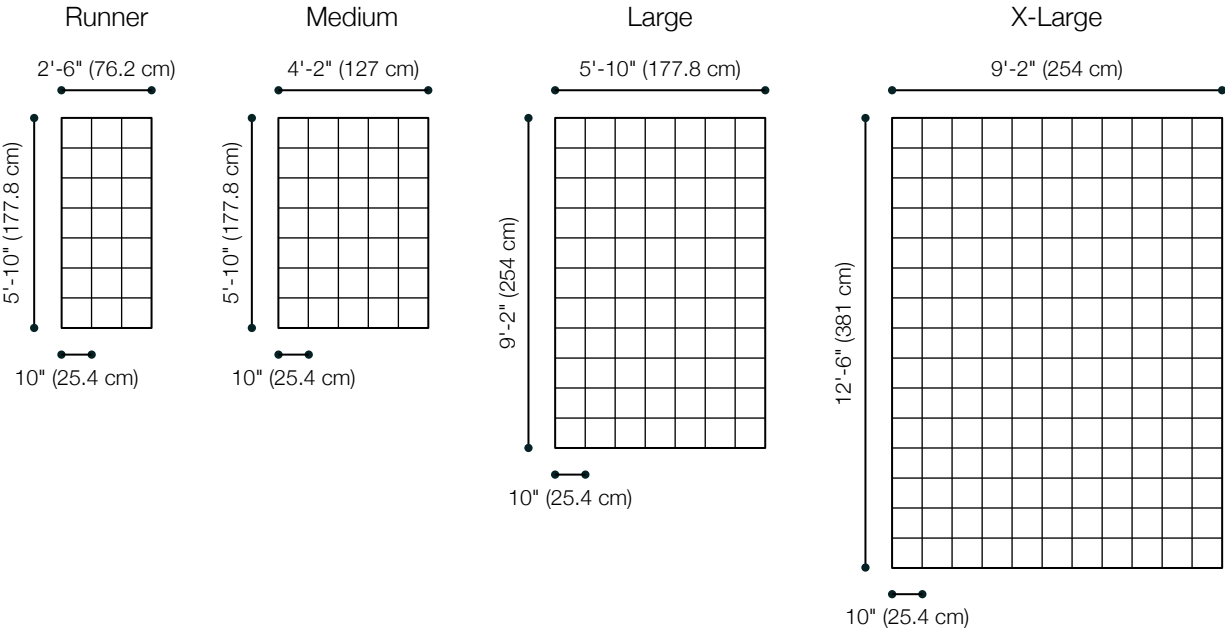

The Constructed Haired Hide Rug, designed by noted architect Emanuela Frattini Magnusson, joins 10 in (25.4 cm) sections of Tri-Color Haired Hide in a hand-sewn patchwork pattern. The luxurious natural feel of haired hide affords a natural complement for modern floors. Each rug is unique, with its own distinct size, shape, and tones, evoking the eclectic whimsy of patchwork quilts. The thread color will match the primary leather color, unless otherwise specified.

Emanuela Frattini Magnusson is the founder of EFM Design, an international, award-winning, multi-disciplinary practice that spans architecture, interiors, product design, brand development, and graphics.
