Arquitectonica is a design firm with offices worldwide, known for its bold modernism. Recognized particularly within an emerging renaissance in Miami's urban landscape, Arquitectonica pushes the limits of design with its innovative use of materials, geometry, and pattern. The spaces recently designed for Casimir Holdings, a private investment firm located in Miami, exemplify this approach.

Turning corners and lining the walls of the office's open workspace, ARO Plank 2 in dark Embossed Tipped upholstery leather creates a striking effect that plays up the space's high contrast, minimal color palette, and repeated patterning typical of Arquitectonica's aesthetic. A full-grain leather with a hand-tipped surface, Embossed Tipped features a pebble grain pattern with a consistent, uniform grain that adds subtle texture to this eye-catching office.
